Old Business-
No Old Business

Open Floor:

Chad J- Subcommittee Budgets- Our subcommittee were supposed to submit budgets in February. When a Committee doesn't submit that budget we should allow our groups the choice to look at the money being spent and if they want to spend it, that is why committee's are supposed to submit the budget.

Since Literature does not have a budget should groups be paying for their bills without voting on it first, Since it is a money issue?

New Business

Maker: Steve R.

Second: Jenny T.

Intent: We don't see it being Necessary

H&I- Hello Family

Sena-na H&I had a busy November, we are still going into NSP, LCC men's and women's, LCF, and Touchstone. We still need a panel leader for LCC men's and LCF. Many thanks to our panel leaders who are doing the extra work to keep these meetings going.

At our last sub-committee meeting we voted to have H&I training be good for two years instead of one. I couldn't find anything in the World service handbook to discourage this and we thought it would be a good way to keep our pool of members up. Likewise, the content of our manuals do not change, so two years seems like a more workable qualification guideline. We had a good H&I training day on Saturday and had roughly 40 attendees. Thanks to all who shared their experience on H&I service. We have only rent of $25.00 to be paid this month which leaves us with a remaining balance of $72.75.
